On the maximum of Cramér's V

Etsuo Hamada

Abstract. The Cramér's V is popular as an association coefficient in goodness-of-fit tests for contingency tables and its maximum value is known to be 1, but it is not true. We propose a modified Cramér's V.